

Memoir of the Ford Foundation in Indonesia 1953-1973: A Fascinating Account of American Philanthropy and Indonesian Development

At Home Abroad: A Memoir of the Ford Foundation in Indonesia 1953-1973

★★★★☆ 4 out of 5

Language	: English
File size	: 512 KB
Text-to-Speech	: Enabled
Screen Reader	: Supported
Enhanced typesetting	: Enabled
Word Wise	: Enabled
Print length	: 226 pages
Lending	: Enabled

Memoir of the Ford Foundation in Indonesia 1953-1973 is a compelling account of the Ford Foundation's extensive work in Indonesia during a pivotal period of the country's history. It provides a unique perspective on the interaction between American philanthropy and Indonesian development, highlighting the challenges, successes, and lasting impact of the Ford Foundation's programs.

The book is written by John D. Montgomery, who served as the Ford Foundation's representative in Indonesia from 1957 to 1962. Montgomery provides a firsthand account of the Foundation's work in Indonesia, drawing on his own experiences and extensive research. The book is richly illustrated with photographs and documents that help to bring the story to life.

The Ford Foundation's Mission in Indonesia

The Ford Foundation was established in 1936 by Henry Ford and his son Edsel Ford. The Foundation's mission is to "advance human welfare." In Indonesia, the Ford Foundation focused on supporting programs in education, agriculture, and public health. The Ford Foundation also supported programs in the arts and social sciences.

The Challenges of Working in Indonesia

The Ford Foundation's work in Indonesia was not without its challenges. The country was newly independent and struggling to build a stable government and economy. There was also a great deal of political instability and violence. Despite these challenges, the Ford Foundation remained committed to its work in Indonesia.

The Successes of the Ford Foundation's Programs

The Ford Foundation's programs in Indonesia made a significant impact on the country's development. The Foundation's support for education helped to increase the number of qualified teachers and students. The Foundation's support for agriculture helped to increase food production. The Foundation's support for public health helped to improve the health of the Indonesian people. The Foundation also supported programs in the arts and social sciences, which helped to promote cultural understanding and social progress.

The Lasting Impact of the Ford Foundation's Work

The Ford Foundation's work in Indonesia has had a lasting impact on the country. The Foundation's programs helped to build a more educated, healthy, and prosperous Indonesia. The Foundation's work also helped to promote cultural understanding and social progress.

Memoir of the Ford Foundation in Indonesia 1953-1973 is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the history of American philanthropy, Indonesian development, or the interaction between the two. The book provides a unique perspective on the challenges, successes, and lasting impact of the Ford Foundation's programs in Indonesia.

The book is available for Free Download from the Ford Foundation website and from other online retailers.

At Home Abroad: A Memoir of the Ford Foundation in Indonesia 1953-1973

★★★★☆ 4 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 512 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Screen Reader : Supported
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Word Wise : Enabled
Print length : 226 pages
Lending : Enabled

Unlock Your Inner Musician: The Ultimate Guide to Learning Guitar for Beginners

Embark on a Musical Journey Are you ready to embark on an extraordinary musical adventure? The guitar, with its enchanting melodies and rhythmic...

Quick Reference Guide To Percussion Instruments And How To Play Them

Unleash your inner rhythm with our comprehensive guide to the world of percussion instruments! Whether you're a seasoned musician or just starting your musical...