

Obama's Plot to Subvert the Constitution and Create an Imperial Presidency

Barack Obama's presidency has been a disaster for America. He has presided over the largest expansion of government in our history, and he has used his executive power to bypass Congress and impose his will on the American people.

Obama's agenda is clear: he wants to transform America into a socialist utopia, where the government controls every aspect of our lives. He has already taken steps to implement his plan, and if he is not stopped, he will destroy the country we love.

The Obama Plan

Obama's plan to subvert the Constitution and create an imperial presidency is based on a fundamental misunderstanding of the American system of government.

The American system of government is based on the principle of separation of powers. The three branches of government—the legislative, the executive, and the judicial—are designed to check and balance each other, so that no one branch can become too powerful.

Obama, however, believes that the president should be the most powerful person in government. He has used his executive power to bypass Congress and impose his will on the American people. He has also used his power to silence his critics and to intimidate his opponents.

Obama's actions are a clear threat to our democracy. If he is not stopped, he will destroy the system of government that has made America the greatest country in the world.

The Evidence

There is ample evidence to support the claim that Obama is trying to subvert the Constitution and create an imperial presidency.

For example, Obama has issued dozens of executive Free Downloads that have the force of law. These executive Free Downloads have bypassed Congress and imposed his will on the American people.

Obama has also used his power to silence his critics and intimidate his opponents. For example, he has used the Internal Revenue Service to target conservative groups and he has used the Justice Department to prosecute whistleblowers.

The evidence is clear: Obama is trying to subvert the Constitution and create an imperial presidency. If he is not stopped, he will destroy the country we love.

What Can Be Done?

There is still time to stop Obama's plan to subvert the Constitution and create an imperial presidency.

The first step is to educate the American people about Obama's agenda. We need to make sure that they understand the threat that he poses to our democracy.

Once the American people are aware of Obama's plan, we can take action to stop him. We can vote for candidates who will oppose his agenda and we can support organizations that are working to defend the Constitution.

We must not let Obama destroy the country we love. We must stand up and fight for our freedom.
