“Robot Dad was standing in the kitchen, trying to make breakfast for his daughter, Lily. He had already managed to burn the toast and spill the milk. Lily was sitting at the table, watching him with amusement.

"Daddy, I think you need a little help," she said.

Robot Dad sighed. "I know, Lily. I'm not very good at this whole fatherhood thing yet."

"That's okay," Lily said. "You're still learning."

Robot Dad smiled. "Thanks, Lily. I appreciate that."”
