And the al-Aqsa Mosque's guardians, steadfast in their faith, stand as the protectors of one of Islam's holiest sites.

As tensions mount, the three families become pawns in a larger game. The Montagues and the Capulets find themselves on opposing sides of a bloody conflict, their love for Jerusalem torn apart by their hatred for each other. The guardians of the al-Aqsa Mosque watch in horror as the city they have sworn to protect is torn asunder.

In the midst of the chaos, a young woman named Salma emerges as a beacon of hope.
